

A CHOICE COLLECTION

Secular Quartettes

For Male and Mixed Voices,

COMPOSED AND ARRANGED BY

COLLIN COE.

MALE VOICES.

We Meet again, Boys.	- - -	3
Rowing Swiftly Down the Stream.	- - -	4
O, Fair Dove, O, Fond Dove.	- - -	4
Awake, my Love.	- - -	3
Farewell, O, Starry Night.	- - -	3
O, Solemn Midnight.	- - -	3
Gayly the Dance. (Waltz)	- - -	4
Evening Boat Song.	- - -	3
Youth is Merry.	- - -	3
The Reveille.	- - -	4
Serenade.	- - -	3

MALE VOICES.

The Trumpet Call.	- - -	4
A Toast to other Days.	- - -	4
Our Flag.	- - -	3
To My Cigar.	- - -	3

MIXED VOICES.

I Know You'll be True to Me Robin.	- - -	3
Come Where Birds are Singing.	- - -	4
Merrily Goes the Mill.	- - -	3
Faithful Ever.	- - -	3
Song of the Old Bell.	- - -	3
Boat Song.	- - -	3

Published by S. BRAINARD'S SONS, Cleveland.

COPYRIGHT 1875, BY S. BRAINARD'S SONS.

OUR FLAG.

(PATRIOTIC QUARTETTE.)

MALE VOICES.

COLLIN COE.

With spirit.

I. TENOR.

1. Would'st thou know our dear country's boast, One she

2. When the world is torn by the strife, And the

II. TENOR.

I. BASS.

1. Would'st thou know our dear country's boast, One she

2. When the world is torn by the strife, And the

II. BASS.

Allegretto con spirito.

15130=3..

Copyright 1879 by S. Brainerd & Sons.

ev-er will defend to the world! It is, is that at once all are free, Where so-stern God of war is a-broad, When fair lands are beset by the foe, And their

ev-er will defend to the world! It is, is that at once all are free, Where so-stern God of war is a-broad, When fair lands are beset by the foe, And their ev-er our flag is un-fur'd! Yes! our lov'd banner shall be seen.....

 Sons fall a prey to the sword; We are the shelter of the free.....

ev-er our flag is un-fur'd! Yes! our lov'd banner shall be seen, shall be seen,
 Sons fall a prey to the sword; We are the shelter of the free, of the free.

Bright as a meteor, to speak of faith and trust. Yes! 'tis the flag, the Come they to seek us, the flag whose cause is just.

Bright as a meteor, to speak of faith and trust. Yes! 'tis the flag, the Come they to seek us, the flag whose cause is just.

flag that we love! We, her children, will keep her from the dust!

flag that we love! We, her children, will keep her from the dust!

Select List of the Latest and Best Vocal Music.

Mailed post-paid to any address on receipt of marked price.

SONGS AND BALLADS.

- My Little Wife Aches.
C. 3.....Price, 35 cts.
Splendid brass song. Fresh, breezy, and in the popular musical style. Fine concert song.
- Maisy Lee. Adams.
F. 1.....Price, 35 cts.
A new edition, in F, of this splendid stage song. We advise all singers to possess a copy of "Maisy Lee," by the same English writer. It is never out of place, and it sung by our leading troup.
- Kelch, Walter Song. Cox.
A flat, 3.....Price, 30 cts.
A beautiful song, airy, and of a very graceful movement. Capital for young singers. Teachers should try this for their young pupils.
- The Two Farewell. Adams.
E flat, 3.....Price, 40 cts.
A pleasing and exceedingly pretty song for voices of medium compass. It is in the musical style, and will prove to be as popular as "Maisy Lee," by the same English writer. Add this song to your collection by all means.
- We All are Growing Old. Cockrell.
A flat, 3.....Price, 30 cts.
An easy piece, and rather pretty.
- Collins' Airs. B flat, 3.....Price, 35 cts.
A new Song and Chorus, by Miss Vernon. Designed to rival in popularity all songs of the "Ellie M. Adams" type. It is charming; the chorus is excellent.
- American Tonal Melody. Vernon.
A flat, 3.....Price, 35 cts.
A pleasing melody of some of the most popular songs of the day, out of the best of its kind.
- When Blossoms are White in the Orchard. R flat, 1.
Price, 30 cts.
Another very pretty Song and Chorus, by Wendell, Sprague, airy, and just the song to become a favorite.
- Another Christmas Song. E flat, 3.....Price, 30 cts.
The first white hill will gladden
Search ye all in them
As ye be right of Christmas
Unto it sleeping lies
A new-born you is waking
To meet be early dawn
And whisper this to all the world
"Another Christmas song."
- Speak up of Old. G, 3.....Price, 30 cts.
Pretty Song and Chorus, by Kneave. The melody is easy to "catch," and the accompaniment simple.
- I Know You'll be True to Me, Eddie. F, 3.....Price, 30 cts.
Similar in style to "Little Robin," and has by many it is admitted will prove to be the popular song. It is one of Wendell's best.
- Beautiful Golden Hair. A, 3.....Price, 30 cts.
A perfect gem, by J. P. Webster. If you desire a really beautiful song and chorus, read for this.
"Beautiful, beautiful golden hair,
Black be the day you were standing there."
- Beale Jayne. E flat, 3.....Price, 35 cts.
Very pretty Song and Chorus, by J. P. Webster. This author's name on the title-page is always an index of something good.
- My Queen. D, 4.....Price, 60 cts.
Splendid Ballad, by Hummel. Should be in the list of all good singers.
- Watch on Forever. C, 4.....Price, 30 cts.
Beautiful White Song, not very difficult. Send for it, and you will be amply repaid. It is by the well-known European writer, Adie.
- Call me Darling. A, 3.....Price, 35 cts.
A good Song and Chorus, by J. P. Webster.
- Do not Forget Me. F, 3.....Price, 30 cts.
Another fine Ballad, by Adie.
- My Dear and Only Love. E flat, 4.....Price, 30 cts.
One of the favorite songs for which Arthur Sullivan is so justly famous. Well written and pleasing.
- Beaute Anna Lee. C, 3.....Price, 35 cts.
Come to Me, Dear, R, 3.....Price, 35 cts.
Barley Blue-Eyed Nell, D, 3.....Price, 35 cts.
- Come to Me, Memories Olden. F, 3.....Price, 35 cts.
Four fine Songs and Choruses, by Webster. We can recommend each.
- The Yagabood. B flat, 3.....Price, 35 cts.
A Song suitable for Baritone Voice, though it may be sung with effect by any voice of moderate compass. It is by Holst, and has been sung with great success by Caruso, Henry Peck, and other famous operatic singers.

- Belle Marry. B flat, 3.....Price, 30 cts.
A lively and pleasing Song, by J. R. Thomas.
"Annoyed, I'm bothered beyond comprehension,
By means of a vision I had in the night
A darling there came who I'm thankful to mention,
Along in my dream, like an angel of light."
- Dark-Eyed Coon. A, 3.....Price, 30 cts.
Easy and very pretty; good Chorus. "Lovers of We'll star's songs should try this one."
- Temperance March. F major, G, 3.....Price, 30 cts.
"Ye friends of Temperance, rise to duty:
Heed now the calls that bid you rise!
The sweet and mother's earnest pleading—
Behold their tears and hear their cries."
- The Elf. F major, G, 4.....Price, 60 cts.
A fine song from the pen of a gifted writer. It is a descriptive song, and of the best we have ever seen.
- Only to Love. Sandy.
G, 3.....Price, 35 cts.
Very pretty and sure to please. Suitable for male voice of ordinary capacity.
- Golden Days. D, 4.....Price, 30 cts.
An excellent Ballad, by Sullivan. This writer has achieved a world-wide reputation as a composer of English songs.
- Alone on the Shore. Beautiful Song, by Tenney.
D, 4.....Price, 40 cts.
We are sure that our friends will like this song. The melody is pleasing and the accompaniment useful.
- Come at Last. Song, by Virginia Gabriel.
E flat, 3.....Price, 40 cts.
The more name of Virginia Gabriel on the title-page of any song is sufficient proof of its good qualities. "Come at Last" is one of the gems. Send for it.
- One Christmas-Tide. Ballad, by Marion.
B flat, 3.....Price, 35 cts.
Another of those exquisite ballads for which their author is becoming so popular. It is charmingly written. Will be a favorite in home and on the concert stage.
- No Letter Tell for Me. Song and Chorus, by Mark Mayers.
C, 3.....Price, 35 cts.
A tip-top song and chorus after the popular style.
- Johnny's Wedding. A very pretty Ballad, by Gray.
F, 3.....Price, 35 cts.
- The Owl. Ballad, by Fennell.
B flat, 4.....Price, 60 cts.
This song is claimed among the very best for baritone or baritone. In fact it is one of the best songs in the world, by one of the best writers in the world. Send for it.
- O that we Two were Maying. G major.
F flat, 4.....Price, 40 cts.
A fine song by one of the masters in musical art. Not very difficult.
- If it were Not for This. Abt.
C, 3.....Price, 40 cts.
Abt's songs are always good. Try this one; you will like it.
- Halcyon Days. Williams.
A, 3.....Price, 30 cts.
Very pretty song, in waltz time. Suitable for young singers.
- What was I to Say. Edison.
E flat, 3.....Price, 30 cts.
Sparkling melody, or a lady's voice—just the thing for a duet.
- Sandee. Deeth. Flaut.
E, 3.....Price, 30 cts.
A charming duet, suitable for baritone and tenor, or soprano and alto.
- Tired. Madras.
D, 3.....Price, 30 cts.
One of the best of this class of ballads. Those who have admired this author's works will be well satisfied with this, the next.
- The Hammock Duet. Reagen.
F, 3.....Price, 40 cts.
A fine duet from the opera, "The Black Prince." Suitable for soprano and tenor, or alto. Not very difficult, but full of pleasing effects.
- Bro-Le-Lark. May.
B flat, 3.....Price, 35 cts.
A sweet song, the words of which are from the "Merry." The music is peculiarly appropriate, and unusually well arranged—indeed the composition should be placed in all collections of good music, as a credit song of rare merit. Suitable for soprano or tenor.
- Write to Me Often, Darling. Westendorf.
D, 3.....Price, 30 cts.
A very pretty song and chorus, in the popular style, and by a very popular author.

COMIC SONGS.

- I Don't Make it Out, Can You? Hest.....Price, 35 cts.
We Do Like a Handful of Buns. Reduced Price, 35 cts.
It's Free. Vernon.....Price, 30 cts.
Three excellent humorous songs, suitable for any voice of medium compass.
- The Man in the Moon. Fennell.
E flat, 3.....Price, 30 cts.
A very popular song, from the same volume "The Man in the Moon."
- When Emma. Comic Song, by Lonsdale.
A, 3.....Price, 35 cts.
Written in the best style of this popular writer of comic songs. An example of "domestic intelligence."
- Timothy Tittle. Hunt.
E, 3.....Price, 35 cts.
Comic song for male voice. Market a good character sketch.
- We'll All get Jolly. Comic. Sin.
C, 3.....Price, 35 cts.
- Green the Griddle, Birth Darling. Vernon.
G, 3.....Price, 30 cts.
One of the best burlesque songs. As a satire on the highly sentimental songs of the day it cannot be beat. The process of baking back-bait takes form the subject, which is accompanied with humorous remarks and suggestions. If you want to put everybody in a good humor, sing this song.
- I Don't Think I'll Say any More.
G, 3.....Price, 35 cts.
Comic song for male voice.
- The Cow Won't Milk. Phillips.
D, 3.....Price, 35 cts.
Comic song for female voice.
- They Say. Eastburn.
C, 3.....Price, 30 cts.
A new song by Eastburn. It is sprightly and pretty and tells some plain truths about "mother trap."
- Keep Those Lamps Burning. C, 3.....Price, 30 cts.
A genuine Humiliation Song and Chorus. Jewish singers are strong!
- We'll All get Jolly as the Night Wears On. C, 3.
Price, 30 cts.
Comic Song, by Sin. Sung with success in London.
- Allow Me to See you Home. D, 3.....Price, 35 cts.
Comic English Ballad. One of the best of its kind.
- Being, Once; or Auction Jew. Comic, by Vernon.
C, 3.....Price, 30 cts.
Written in Vernon's best style. The chorus is very "rakish."
- Colorado Beetle. Humorous, by McAndie.
F, 3.....Price, 35 cts.
Descriptive of the annoyances occasioned by the beetle. A "Colombian" song.
- Kick Him when He's Down. By Elwood.
F, 3.....Price, 35 cts.
Tells some plain truths, and has a chorus for male or mixed voices.
- Turn the Handle, Joe. Hunt.
D, 3.....Price, 35 cts.
Another excellent comic song, by one of the most popular writers of this class of music.

NEW QUARTETTES.

FOR MALE VOICES.

- Gaily the Dancers. Walz.....Price, 40 cts.
Dancing Swifly Down the Stream.....Price, 30 cts.
O Fair Dove, Fond Dove.....Price, 40 cts.
We Meet Again, Boys.....Price, 30 cts.
Awake, My Love.....Price, 35 cts.
O, Salome Midnight.....Price, 35 cts.
Farewell, O Starry Night.....Price, 35 cts.
Evening Sweet Song.....Price, 35 cts.
Truth is Merry.....Price, 35 cts.
Poa, which weep.
- Come where Birds are Singing.....Price, 40 cts.
Kindly Give the Bell.....Price, 30 cts.
I Know You'll be True to Me, Eddie.....Price, 30 cts.
Call by Night.....Price, 35 cts.
A Stormy Memory.....Price, 35 cts.

Address all Orders to S. BRAINARD'S SONS, Publishers, Cleveland,
Or, Branch House WILLIAMS & MANSS, Cincinnati, O.